DEDICATION

- To Miss Thelma Bryant, who has for the past three years faithfully filled the position of sponsor as our leader, our helper, and our friend, we, the class of '36, gratefully dedicate this volume of the Monticello.

Helen, I love you so much. It will not be the same here without you

Thelma Bryant

"To enable every man to judge for himself what will secure or endanger his freedom"

F O R E W O R D

- In view of the fine work of our predecessors, we feel some hesitation in sending you this annual; yet we ask you to realize our limitations and inexperience and accept it as a testimonial of our affection for and appreciation of Thomas Jefferson High School.

- In it we have sincerely endeavored to depict the true life of Thomas Jefferson so that when, perhaps in later years, you glance back on the record of your carefree high school career, this Monticello may serve as an echo of the pleasures and activities of these blissful days.

- We wish to express our deepest gratitude to the co-workers who have rendered us such invaluable assistance—the faculty, the artists, the writers—all who have had a finger in our pie.

- The work and thrill of creation has been ours; this Monticello, the result, is yours; may it be the mirror of our school; may it be an accurate reflection of the real Thomas Jefferson.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Diary of a Jeffersonian

• FALL 1933 •

Dear Diary,

We, the present "rats" of Thomas Jefferson, are an organized class, formed this November and destined to graduate in 1936! How nice it feels and how distant '36 seems. Our first class officers have been chosen and Miss Thelma Bryant elected sponsor for the three remaining years under the roof of dear old T. J. (We already feel quite familiar with our Alma Mater.) Who knows what will happen to our class and the school during the time here? The future alone holds its secrets!

In keeping with the Jeffersonian spirit of democracy, all social clubs are to be abolished next June. So none of our group will ever belong to them.

• SPRING 1934 •

Dear Diary,

Are we proud of our basketball team? Thomas Jefferson's dark horse quintet has killed the John Marshall jinx and come out on top with its first major sport championship. They have been presented with the Harris-Brenaman Basketball Trophy.

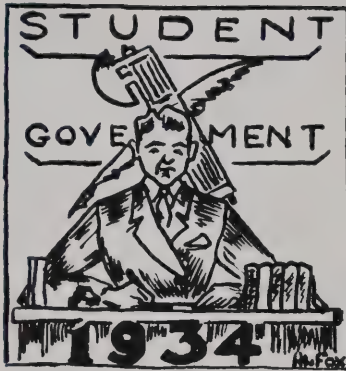

The Jeffersonian, keeping pace with the school, has won for the second consecutive time first honor rating from the National Scholastic Press Association.

• FALL 1934 •

Dear Diary,

As a junior group we make this entry. It's a very pleasant sensation to be a step higher in the eyes of the world and in our own estimation. With our class organized and officers chosen, we are ready to see our school become larger and finer this year.

A very splendid and lasting movement has been inaugurated at Thomas Jefferson. This is student government or student participation, as it is designated. We are very fortunate in that it has been started while we are still here to reap its benefits and to be actively engaged in its various branches. We are proud to contribute two of our leaders to this fine organization—William ReMine, president, and Bobby Barnes, vice-president.

The first step in student participation has been to establish honor studies run entirely by trusted pupils. Order in the cafeteria and halls has also been placed in the hands of students. The movement is proving most successful and has created a livelier interest in school affairs among Jeffersonians.

• FALL 1935 •

Dear Diary,

Our last, our most important, and swiftest year is here. We're seniors and it's hard to realize the fact!

However, realization has quickly come upon us with the increase and number of activities.

The first important event has been the election of officers. Rex Allyn was chosen president, Prudence Osborne vice-president, Hattie Ware secretary, Thurman Day treasurer, and Watson James reporter. Next our attention has been given to the class play, Lilies of the Field, successfully presented this November.

The Jeffersonian is triumphantly celebrating its fifth birthday by winning the silver cup for the best newspaper among class A high schools represented in the Southern Interscholastic Press Association.

• SPRING 1936 •

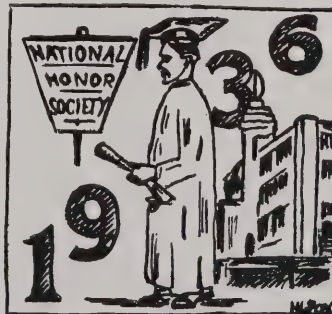

Dear Diary,

This is our last entry and oh, what a mixture of emotions accompanies it!

Another fine organization has been installed at Thomas Jefferson. We are now proud to have a chapter of the National Honor Society with twenty-five charter members chosen from the senior and junior classes.

The faculty play, the school operetta, the senior picnic and dance, and many other activities too numerous to mention round out our last year.

With a deep feeling of pride and with many memories of happy and active times under her roof do we, the members of the senior class, look back on our days spent at Thomas Jefferson.

A detailed black and white sketch of a classical building, possibly a temple or a grand house, featuring a prominent pediment supported by columns. The building is partially obscured by a large, dark, textured mass on the left side, which could represent a hill or a large tree. The sky is filled with large, billowing clouds, rendered with expressive, sketchy lines. The drawing is signed 'B. 1907' in the bottom right corner.

Student Participation Association

• To accomplish its purpose, that of training finer citizens through the practice of good citizenship, the Student Participation Association has steadily advanced under the able sponsorship of Miss Harriet D. Snow of the science department. The work of the student council has not been sensational, nor has it made headlines often; though it has been slow, it has been very sure. Every step is experimental, this school being a pioneer in the field; but each step is also carefully weighed, debated, and investigated as to its advisability before it is attempted.

• As members of the first cabinet of the student council, the student body of Thomas Jefferson elected William ReMine, president; Bobby Barnes, vice-president; and Edwin Thistlethwaite, secretary. These officers, aided by the Senate and the House of Representatives, have done fine work during the past year. The first step was taken December 10, 1934, when honor study halls were installed. Next came the formation of the reception committee which was followed by the establishment of the cafeteria committee. The other committees, which include the traffic, library, bicycle, student, usher, office, and new ideas, all came into existence as the necessity arose. The assembly committee plans programs which are presided over either by the president or by the vice-president. The publicity, art, and business staffs were organized to inform the student body of the work and progress of the student council. To the eventual end that all branches of school activity may be united under one body, the club affiliation committee was formed.

• The Senate, composed of eighteen members, has met every day to discuss problems which arise. Formal meetings in which the constitution and other important matters are discussed and voted upon are held every Tuesday.

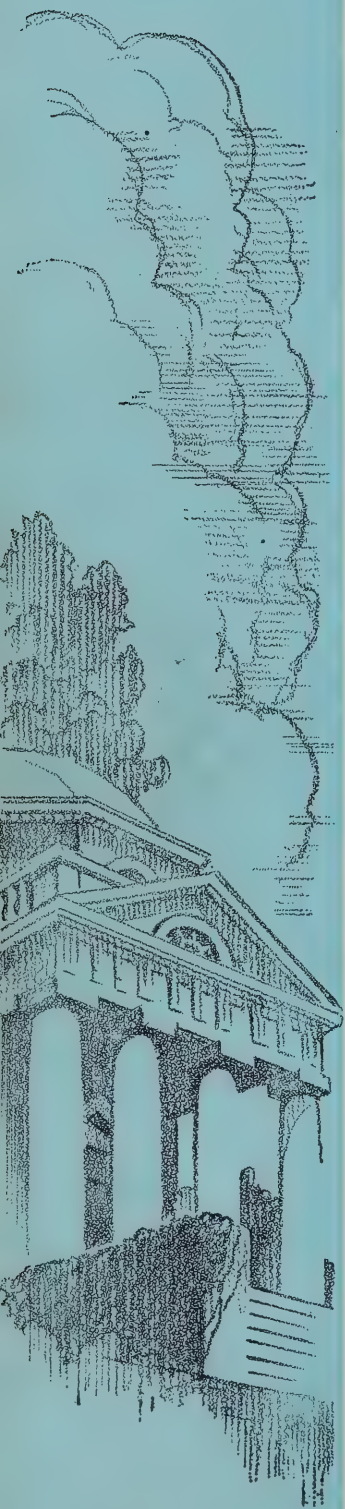

• The connecting link between the home rooms and the student council is the House of Representatives. The duty of the representative of each room is to take back to his classmates information concerning the activities of the student council. To them is intrusted the task of molding student opinion concerning the movement.

• With the incoming of the new officers and the beginning of a new term, the Student Participation Association will need the full cooperation and backing of every student of Thomas Jefferson in its endeavor to improve the school and make student activities more unified and compact. There is a wide field of opportunity before a successful student council, and the responsibility rests with the new students of Thomas Jefferson to build up the Student Participation in School Government to the heights for which it is ordained.

- The National Honor Society was established here January 14, 1936, with twenty-five seniors, who were considered most outstanding in the essential qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service to the school, as charter members.
- The society provided each 2-L home room with two sponsors to guide the new students in their work, create enthusiasm for extra curricula activities, and coach any student needing assistance.
- That the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service to the school may be the aim and ideal of every student is the goal of the National Honor Society of Thomas Jefferson.

The Latin Club

- The first Latin Club ever formed at Thomas Jefferson High School was organized in November, 1935, and held its first meeting on December 6th. Its members included Miss Amy Kratz, sponsor, and the nine girls who composed the Latin seven and eight Virgil classes.
- Because there were exactly nine members, the club was called Musæ; and each girl was given the name of a muse in ancient Roman mythology. Those given the members were as follows: Emma Lou Parsons, Clio; Ella Stowe, Erato; Ruth Keppel, Thalia; Jane Palmatory, Terpsichore; Lillian Shoaf, Calliope; Maria Louise Snead, Melpomene; Dorothy Sease, Polyhymnia; and Margaret Ligon, Urania.
- Miss Kratz, their leader, was regally christened Apollo. Though the membership of this small club has stayed the same, it has been a success from its beginning. The meetings held twice a month during the regular period have touched on all phases of Roman life. A Christmas party and a picnic in the spring will long be remembered.
- At the time this picture was taken, Miss Kratz, the sponsor, was absent because of illness. Miss Katherine Sergent, acting as substitute, took her place.

City Football Champions 1935

• Thomas Jefferson's 1935 gridiron season was the most successful since the establishment of the school. The team won eight and tied two games. Morrison, Glass, Saint Christopher's, Hampton, Benedictine, McGuire's, Lane, and George Washington of Danville all fell before the Presidents. Petersburg and John Marshall were the teams tied. Because of this record Thomas Jefferson was awarded the City Conference Title and the Kohler Trophy. They were also the runner-up in the state championship.

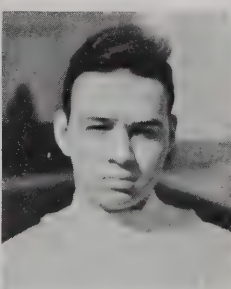

• Sam Dunn, Alex Moore, Shirl Faircloth in the backfield and John Ryan in the line were made members of the All-City football team. Bob Kraft, Winston Meade, and Horace Sharp were selected for the second team. Moore also made the All-Star team; and Dunn, Faircloth, Ryan, and Meade were placed on the second team. Additional honors were heaped on Moore and Meade when they were selected for the All-Southern grid team.

John Marshall, Thomas Jefferson's ninth foe, was a fast team as shown by their stopping Moore after he had gained a scant three yards on an off tackle play.

T. J. 13 — MORRISON 0. In the first game of the season Thomas Jefferson's gridders showed power and teamwork. The scoring came in the second and last quarters. Shirl Faircloth broke loose for thirty-five yards in the second period to put across the first tally. Sam Dunn made a perfect placement. In the fourth quarter Faircloth again broke loose for the second touchdown. Dunn's try for extra point failed. All through the game the President's line proved a stubborn bulwark to the light, but scrappy, Morrison backs. The first and third periods were fought on even terms with neither side threatening.

T. J. 7 — GLASS 0. In a thrilling upset the Scarlet and White gridders defeated the Blue and White foes of Lynchburg. Shirl Faircloth again did the scoring for the Belt Liners. In the first quarter he heaved a pass to Dunn, which placed the ball on the visitors' five-yard line. Faircloth then went over for the tally. Dunn's place-kick was perfect. The second quarter was a seesaw affair. The closest Glass came to scoring was in the third period when they had the ball on the Presidents' ten-yard line with four downs to put it across, but they were stopped.

T. J. 19 — ST. CHRISTOPHER'S 13. Playing their first City Conference game, Thomas Jefferson whipped a fast Saint Christopher's team. The Jeffs drew first blood when Sam Dunn went over from the one-yard line. He also made the conversion. The Saints rallied and came back to put over two touchdowns and one extra point before the half ended. In the third quarter a pass from Alec Moore to John Ryan put the Jeffs on even terms with their foe. In the same quarter Moore intercepted a pass and scampered thirty-five yards for a touchdown. The remaining minutes saw the Presidents playing a tight defensive game.

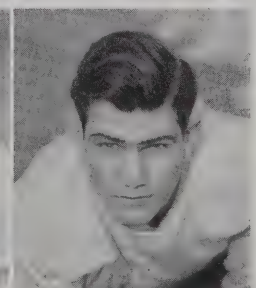

T. J. 7 — HAMPTON 0. Continuing their victory march, the Belt Liners turned back a strong Hampton eleven. The only threat at scoring in the first half came in the second quarter when the Crabbers advanced to the Presidents' fifteen-yard line. After four thrusts at the line, which gained them nothing, the ball was given to the Jeffs, who immediately punted out of danger. In the third quarter a pass from Shirl Faircloth to Sam Dunn made a nice conversion. Hampton made another futile thrust in the third quarter, and the Jeffs made a scoring threat in the last quarter but this was halted.

T. J. 0 — PETERSBURG 0. Playing like a well-oiled machine, the Jeff gridders held a powerful Petersburg eleven to a scoreless tie. Putting on a powerful offense in the early minutes of the first quarter, the Cockaders advanced to the Presidents' four-yard line. At this point Welford Harrison intercepted a pass which ended that threat. The second quarter saw the Jeffs put on a spurt which was halted on Petersburg's four-yard stripe by a fumble. In the third quarter Petersburg shot the works with laterals and reverses, but they were unable to score.

T. J. 20 — MCGUIRE'S 0. With a powerful line and smooth running backs, Thomas Jefferson handed a smashing defeat to McGuire's. The scoring began in the second quarter when John Ryan recovered behind the Macs' goal. No scoring came in the third quarter, but in the final period Alex Moore fumbled on McGuire's four-yard line, and Welford Harrison recovered for the Jeffs over the goal. The final score came when Moore went over from the Macs' four-yard strip. Sam Dunn converted the extra point after the first and last touchdowns.

T. J. 25 — LANE 6. After a slow first quarter the Jeffs came back in the second quarter to score two touchdowns and one extra point in one minute of play. The third touchdown came in the third period on a pass from Alec Moore to John Ryan. A stream of Thomas Jefferson substitutes came into the game in the fourth quarter and before the game was over, every man in uniform on the Jeff bench had played. Lane's touchdown came in this quarter, but the President subs retaliated when Jimmy Hall, guard, intercepted a pass and scored. This was the first time the Jeffs have ever been scored against on their own field.

On a sweeping end run, Shirl Faircloth, number 23, reeled off eighteen yards against John Marshall. The score at the end of the game was 6-6.

T. J. 20 — BENEDICTINE 0. Thomas Jefferson's first city football title was clinched when they defeated the Cadets, 20-0. The Jeffs scored in the first quarter when Welford Harrison put the ball over. Sam Dunn's placement was bad. Alec Moore also scored in this quarter after a twenty-yard run. Dunn made a perfect placement. The third tally came in the third period when John Ryan went over on a reverse. The only threat put forth by Benedictine was the air route. In the second and fourth periods they literally filled the air with passes. Moore returned a punt seventy-five yards once, but he was called back.

T. J. 6 — JOHN MARSHALL 6. Before eight thousand shivering fans, John Marshall held the Presidents to a six to six deadlock. The Justices scored in the second quarter from the Jeffs' five-yard line. The first and the third periods were scoreless, but in the fourth period a long pass from Alec Moore to Sam Dunn gave six points for the Presidents. In the last few minutes of play, the Justices carried the ball to Thomas Jefferson's four-yard stripe, but on a try at the line the ball-carrier fumbled and the Presidents recovered. Three plays later the game ended.

T. J. 20 — GEORGE WASHINGTON 0. In the final game of the season the Presidents took a trip to Danville to participate in the Turkey Day game. They returned with a 20-0 victory and found themselves runner-up in the State race. The Danville boy held the Presidents to one touchdown and the extra point in the first half, but in the last half the Richmonders rolled up thirteen points.

Varsity Basketball

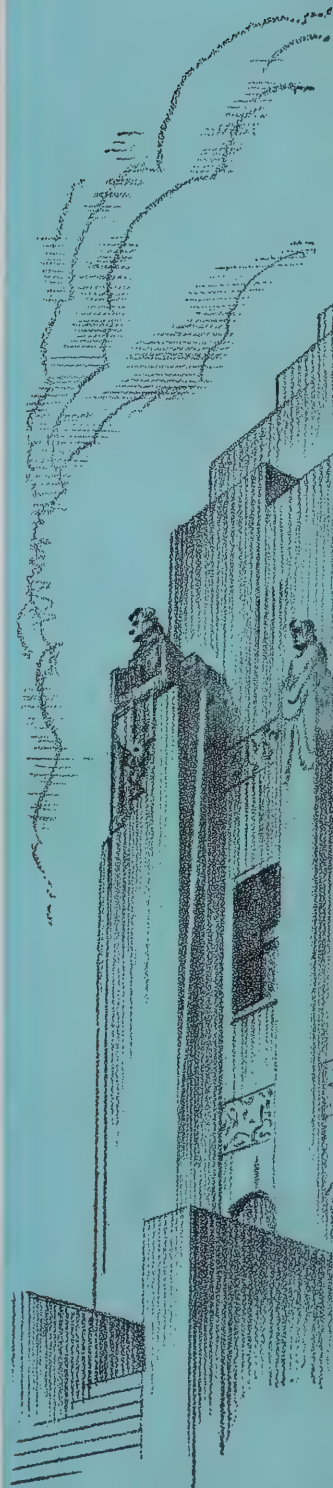

● The 1935-'36 basketball season did not prove very fruitful for the Thomas Jefferson basketballers. They won ten and lost eleven of their games. Many of the frays were heartbreakers. These were lost by one or two points. The Jeffs came in third in the City race, with Benedictine and John Marshall in the first and second places, respectively.

Varsity Golf Team

• Thomas Jefferson's 1936 golfers will have to do some high stepping to keep up the prestige of last year's team. The 1935 team didn't lose a match, and they came in second in the two tournaments they entered. Among the teams they whipped were the District of Columbia Champions and the Maryland State Champions. Clark Lea, a member of this year's team, won the State Junior Medal Championship last year.

Girls Basketball

• Building a basketball squad with no '34 varsity members to form its nucleus was a rather difficult job—yet Coach Katherine Davis and these troopers performed their task well. Out of their total of thirteen games played, the T. J. cagers, captained by Margaret Blunt, were victorious in seven.

• The Jeff second team basketeers won over Westhampton High and Collegiate by large margins—but lost to John Marshall and St. Catherine's.

• Although the T. J. hockey team was defeated in its matches, the games were much closer than the scores would indicate. Suzanna Farley and Captain Alice Beattie were placed on the All State Team at the tournament held at St. Catherine's in which Tee-Jay topped the Collegiate and John Marshall sextettes. ✓ ACCENT on YOUTH

That's where life insurance puts it. When one is young he may become the owner of a life insurance estate at a lower cost while receiving relatively larger benefits.
In youth, too, there is less likelihood that one will be found uninsurable. The foresighted young man makes life insurance his first investment.

A lady was entertaining the small son of her friend. "Are you sure you can cut your meat, Willie?" she asked, watching him a moment.

"Oh, yessum," he replied without even looking up, "we often have it as tough as this at home."

Hampden-Sydney College

1776-1936

The students of Hampden-Sydney are her best advertisers. Why?

Because the atmosphere is a wholesome and a Christian one; because there is a hearty co-operation between students and Faculty; because a student has to earn what he gets, but knows he will get what he earns; because the students know that a Hampden-Sydney diploma is one of quality, based on the fact that this College has entrance requirements which insure better preparation than the average; and because the College declines to allow any "short cuts" to a diploma.
